Jefferson School of Nursing has been awarded a grant by the Dr. Edna B. McKenzie Scholarship fund. The purpose of the grant is to offer scholarships to disadvantaged and under-represented nursing students in the JSN. Under-represented groups in nursing are defined as African Americans, American Indians, Asian Americans, individuals of multiracial background, males and persons with disabilities. Disadvantaged includes persons with limited proficiency in English, low socio-economic group, member of a minority cultural group, primary caregiver in a single parent household, educationally at-risk and those educated in a poor urban environment. If you believe that you meet this eligibility criteria, I invite you to apply for a Dr. Edna B. McKenzie Scholarship to support your tuition during the 2009 – 2010 academic year.

Describe on the reverse side how you meet the eligibility criteria as a disadvantaged person and/or member of an under-represented group.

I hereby apply for a Dr. Edna B. McKenzie Scholarship. If I am awarded and accept this Scholarship, I understand the information contained in my application for admission to the College and/or my current academic record will be used in the Nursing Scholarship Award selection process.
